RE: Vivek R. Nair

To whom it may concern:

This letter is my personal recommendation for Vivek R. Nair.

I have known Vivek in both a professional and personal capacity for the past fifteen years. Over the years, he has assisted me with many projects, including being the official photographer to my "India Experience Program", where I offer a study abroad graduate level course in Kerala for university students from America.

Four years ago, Vivek assisted me in producing a 13 minute documentary on Centenarians in Kerala. This year Vivek and his team assisted me in producing a 10 minute documentary on "Super Centenarians", profiling 115 and 110 year old individuals from the Spice Mountain area of the southwestern part of India. His performance was beyond any level of professionalism I have seen.

Vivek possesses unique leadership qualities. His capacity to mobilize and inspire a group of young talented individuals and coordinate the entire process in a short time frame is amazing.

Besides being a joy to work with, Vivek is a natural born leader who is able to present creative ideas in unique ways.

I give Vivek my highest recommendation without reserve. He is a true professional and would make a great asset to your organization.

If you would like any further reference regarding Vivek, you are welcome to contact me at any time via my e-mail, muralina@usc.edu.

Sincerely,

Dear Participant,

I am pleased to present this Certificate of Participation to recognize your important contribution to the Guinness World Records.

At Guinness World Records, we have been measuring, verifying and recording achievements since 1954. Today, our mission is to create an archive of records that inspires, entertains people across the globe, and celebrates the world's best.

The records you participate in are now one of the 40,000 world records that are in the Guinness World Records database. From thousands of applications we receive every month, only 5% actually make it to become an official Guinness World Record. As a member of this select group, you are truly proud of your achievement.

On behalf of Guinness World Records, I would like to personally congratulate you on your Guinness World Records achievement.
